A Forever Family is a dream come true

Children are meant to be dreamers. They dream of being astronauts, teachers, painters, or professional athletes. Or of exploring the world. For many, having a family helps them hold on to those dreams and carry hope for the future.

Basir dreamed of having a family.

Basir, who at age 15, was in foster care and dreamt of finding a stable home and a family that he could call his own. After going through many placements, he ended up living in a group home, and for a moment, his dream started to diminish.

But someone in Basir's community saw a bright light in the teen and knew that what he needed most was a family to help him achieve a successful future. For Basir, an ordinary connection at school became the path to his dream of a family coming true.

In Philadelphia alone there are hundreds of children and teens like Basir.

Teens need someone to believe in them and their dreams. With your support, we can make more dreams come true.

Be sure to read our update next week to learn more about Basir's story!
