A Diamond Under Pressure: Laniyah's Story

For our fall fundraiser, we are celebrating the mission of Turning Points for Children and inviting some of the young adults that our programs serve—those who shine brightly despite the challenges they've faced—to meet YOU, our impact partners!

A diamond is formed under extreme pressure, which was the case for Laniyah. ◆

Like many, Laniyah had a very difficult upbringing that led her to the foster care system. As a teenager, she was navigating numerous overwhelming challenges without guidance she longed for. When Laniyah was referred to the LifeSet program, Turning Points matched her with a dedicated social worker who became a mentor, offering the support and care she deserved.

Ivy, her LifeSet specialist helped Laniyah build her confidence and even get into college. Now, Laniyah is giving back and helping connect other young people to LifeSet.

She enjoys sharing her story and letting other youth know “there’s more to life... just because you have difficulties and obstacles in [your past], doesn’t change what you can do in your future.” Laniyah is destined for great things. In fact, you’ll hear from Laniyah herself at our event!

Come support our “hidden gems” at Denim & Diamonds, Thursday October 3rd, and if you can’t attend, please donate a ticket and help more of our youth shine bright!
