Happy New Year! We hope that this newsletter finds you in good health and good spirits.

In December, FAWN hosted our first Wellness Workshop since before the pandemic. Our new partner, New Voices for Reproductive Justice, facilitated an informative and empowering Black Birth Advocacy workshop. It was a successful event and we look forward to hosting more workshops on a variety of health and wellness topics in the future!

FAWN guests really enjoyed the frozen smoothie desserts.

FAWN was also able to award over 100 pantry guests with grocery store gift cards, in addition to cooking and baking supplies thanks to a generous donation from Tmunity.

FAWN has seen a large increase of shoppers at both locations. Many students are coming to shop weekly, and teachers are bringing down entire classes. We are grateful to these teachers for making it easier to support the students and their families.

To finish off this month, we attended a resource fair for the Housing-Employment-Launching-Program (HELP) on January 19th, supporting TP4C's LifeSET program.

We also had a tasty treat: Lime Flavored Hot Cheetos
